INFORMATION FOR CLIENTS

What to do if you have a complaint about our services

Our complaints policy

We are committed to providing a high-quality legal service to all our clients. When something goes wrong, we need you to tell us about it. This will help us to improve our standards.

Our complaints procedure

If you have concerns over the quality of our service, please contact Michael Fletcher, our client care partner. You can write to him at Glaisyers Solicitors LLP, 3 Hardman Street, Manchester, M3 3HF. Mr Fletcher may pass your complaint to the partner in charge of the department involved in your complaint (the department head) for him to deal with or comment upon.

What will happen next?

1. We will send you an email acknowledging your complaint and asking you to confirm or explain the details set out. We will also let you know the name of the person who will be dealing with your complaint. You can expect to receive our letter within three working days of our receipt of your complaint.
2. We will record your complaint in our central register.

3. We will then promptly investigate your complaint. This may involve one or more of the following steps:

- a. we may ask the member of staff who acted for you to reply to your complaint;
- b. we may examine the reply and the information in your complaint file. We may then ask them for more information.

We would expect to deal with the investigation as quickly as possible taking into account the complexity of the matter. You should expect to hear from us after seven to ten working days. If the investigation will take longer than this, we will let you know.

4. If appropriate, we will invite you to meet the department head to discuss and, it is hoped, resolve your complaint.

5. We will write to you shortly thereafter to confirm what took place and any suggestions we have agreed with you.

6. At this stage, if you are still not satisfied you can write to us again. We will then arrange to reconsider our decision.

7. We will let you know the result of the reconsideration within approximately seven working days of its conclusion and at this time we will write to you confirming our decision on your complaint and explaining our reasons.

8. If you are still not satisfied, you can then contact the Legal Ombudsman <https://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/> or telephone number 0300 555 0333 about your complaint. Any complaint to the Legal Ombudsman must usually be made within six months of the date of our final decision on your complaint or one year from the date that you become aware of the problem which has led to your complaint.

9. In addition, if you have any complaints about our behaviour you can also refer the matter to the Solicitors Regulatory Authority. On our web site you will find a link or they can be contacted on www.sra.org.uk/consumers/problems/ or Solicitors

Regulation Authority, The Cube, 199 Wharfside Street, Birmingham, B1 1RN
(map of location) or DX 720293 BIRMINGHAM 47

10. Please be assured that we will take your complaint and concerns seriously. Our aim is to resolve the issue promptly and sympathetically.
